

6516204850.txt

Satellite radio is one of the most significant innovations in the history of the media. Satellite provides consumers with a variety of choices. I would expect the NAB to oppose any innovation and their petition 04-160 is really no surprise. If the FCC supports consumer choice it will reject this petition and encourage any and all innovations in the world of media. Thank you.